Town Hall Meeting Set For May 18th

(Farmington, Utah) – Davis County Government’s elected and appointed officials have scheduled May 18th for an evening Town Hall Meeting for members of the public to learn about what issues affect Davis County. The 7 p.m. meeting will be in Room 230 at the Davis County Memorial Courthouse, 28 East State Street, Farmington.

Kicking off the meeting will be a brief update on the Davis County Sheriff’s Office jail expansion project. Next, various topics will be addressed during the public question and answer period with the elected and appointed officials within Davis County Government.

According to Commissioner Carol Page, Chair of the Davis County Commission, “This meeting is a two-way street. We always look forward to any opportunity for us to learn first-hand what issues are of concern to the citizens that we serve. And our citizens get their questions or concerns heard by the officials that work those issues,” she said. “This is definitely a win-win situation for all of us.”

Members of the public wishing to speak during the Town Hall Meeting should sign up just before or during the meeting. Based upon the sign up sheet, concerns or questions will be heard on a first-come, first served basis. A maximum of three minutes per speaker is requested to allow time for several issues to be addressed at the meeting.

“We’re hoping that having this Town Hall Meeting during the evening hours allows many more of our Davis County citizens a chance to meet and hear from those people serving them within county government,” said Commissioner Page.
